Legislative Decree 196/2003 – Informed consent for Customers and Suppliers (Ref. CE directives 95/46/CE dd 24/10/95 and 2002/58/CE dd 12/07/02)

Messrs. Firm, Company, Customer,

The writing Company notifies that it holds personal and fiscal data concerning You for the establishment and execution of the contract relations under way with You; such data have been acquired also verbally, directly or through third parties, and are qualified as personal by the law.

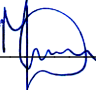

With reference to these data we inform You that:

- the data are processed in connection with contractual requirements and consequent fulfilment of legal and contractual obligations deriving therefrom, as well as to achieve an effective management of business relations;
- the data will be processed both in written form and by way of electronic and computer means;
- the communication of such data is compulsory for all that is required by legal and contractual obligations and therefore the denial to provide them or to consent to their subsequent processing may determine the impossibility of the writing Company to give way to the contractual relations;
- on the other hand, the refusal to provide all the data that are not ascribable to legal or contractual obligations shall be evaluated each time by the writing Company and shall determine consequent decisions according to the importance of the data requested for the management of the business relations;
- it will be possible to communicate Your data in the following terms:
 - o to subjects that can have access to the data as provided by dispositions of laws, regulations or communitarian norms, within the limits set out by such norms
 - o to subjects that have the necessity of accessing Your data for auxiliary purposes connected to the relations existing between You and us, within the limits that are strictly necessary to carry out auxiliary tasks (for example, banking companies)
 - o to our consultants, within the limits necessary to carry out their assignment in our organisation, subject to our order letter specifying privacy and safety duties
- except for communication and dissemination carried out in performing legal obligations, Your data shall not be disclosed;
- the data shall be treated for the whole duration of the contractual relations established and also subsequently for the performance of all the legal fulfilments as well as for future business purposes;
- as far as such data are concerned, Your Firm/Company can exercise the rights set out by article 7 of the Legislative Decree 196/2003 (copy of which is enclosed) within the limits and under the terms established by articles 8, 9 and 10 of said legislative decree;
- the controller of the data processing is our Company:

Legislative Decree 196/2003 – Right to access personal data and other rights

1. A data subject shall have the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him exist, regardless of their being already recorded, and communication of such data in intelligible form.

2. A data subject shall have the right to be informed:

a) of the source of the personal data;

b) of the purposes and methods of the processing;

c) of the logic applied to the processing, if the latter is carried out with the help of electronic means;

d) of the identification data concerning data controller, data processors and the representative designated as per Section 5(2);

e) of the entities or categories of entity to whom or which the personal data may be communicated and who or which may get to know said data in their capacity as designated representative(s) in the State's territory, data processor(s) or person(s) in charge of the processing.

3. A data subject shall have the right to obtain

a) updating, rectification or, where interested therein, integration of the data;

b) erasure, anonymization or blocking of data that have been processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which they have been collected or subsequently processed;

c) certification to the effect that the operations as per letters a) and b) have been notified, as also related to their contents, to the entities to whom or which the data were communicated or disseminated, unless this requirement proves impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate effort compared with the right that is to be protected.

4. A data subject shall have the right to object, in whole or in part:

a) on legitimate grounds, to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, even though they are relevant to the purpose of the collection;

b) to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, where it is carried out for the purpose of sending advertising materials or direct selling or else for the performance of market or commercial communication surveys.

The undersigned Firm/Company declares it has received complete information pursuant to article 13 of the Legislative Decree 196/2003 together with copy of article 7 of said decree and expresses its consent to the processing and communication of its data, which are qualified as personal by aforesaid law, within the limits, for the purposes and for the duration set out in the information sheet.
